About Me

With a proactive approach and a passion for community engagement, I thrive in roles that allow me to make a meaningful impact. As a dynamic campus leader, I am dedicated to promoting student empowerment, fostering a culture of learning, and driving positive change within the community. With a strong foundation in communication, leadership, and event organization, I am committed to fulfilling the responsibilities of a Campus Mantri at GeeksforGeeks. Through effective promotion of GeeksforGeeks initiatives, organizing engaging workshops, and facilitating student involvement, I aim to create a vibrant and inclusive tech community on campus while maximizing opportunities for student growth and development.
